CLAUSES

1. Subject

The rental company grants the renter the use of the jet ski identified above, for the agreed period and under the conditions of this contract.

2. Price, payment and deposit

The renter pays the agreed price and provides a deposit as security against damage, penalties or delays. The deposit is refunded upon return of the craft in the agreed condition, less any applicable amounts.

3. Insurance and excess

The craft carries the mandatory civil-liability insurance. The renter assumes the excess and any damage not covered by the policy up to the limit stated in this contract.

4. Conditions of use

The renter agrees to: respect the authorized navigation area and the minimum distance from shore; not exceed the permitted number of occupants; not navigate under the influence of alcohol or substances; wear the life jacket at all times; and follow the safety instructions received.

5. Liability

The renter is responsible for damage to the craft, to third parties and for administrative penalties arising from use during the rental period, and expressly authorizes charging them to the payment method provided.

6. Renter declarations

The renter declares that they can swim, have received the handling and safety instructions, and hold the required license or authorization (or carry out the activity in guided format under instructor supervision).

7. Return and delays

The craft is returned at the agreed time and in the same condition. Each hour or fraction of delay is penalized according to the stated amount.

8. Data protection

The renter's data is processed in accordance with the GDPR for the purpose of managing the rental and meeting legal obligations. The renter may exercise their rights with the rental company.
